

Suits at Half Price

The above announcement is true in every respect and is proving a source of saving to many of our patrons. Many of these Suits we were advised to keep until next Fall, as the styles are similar to what are being made for Fall trade, but that would be violating our most stringent rule: "never to carry stocks over to the next season." But with you it's different. There is no reason in the world why you shouldn't buy a Suit, or a Jacket, or a Skirt now—one that you can use a lot this Summer and still find it pre-eminently fashionable for next Fall. Remember you can buy them cheaper now than we can. There are only a few, so hurry.
